

ANSWER SHEET
CYBERPROOFED?
ASSESSMENT QUESTIONNAIRE
AND TEACHING NOTES

1. There is no recommended location for your Internet access computer in the home.

- A. True B. False

Teaching Notes:

- ✓ computer should be in a high traffic, visible area to facilitate monitoring by others in the home
- ✓ family members should take note of the amount of time others are spending on the Internet (possible Internet addiction)
- ✓ also monitor for inappropriate material or discussions (chat rooms)

2. Sexual predators frequently meet youth on the Internet by pretending to be of similar age and sex to the potential victim.

- A. True B. False

Teaching Notes:

- ✓ predators and con artists use the anonymity of the internet to their advantage
- ✓ by claiming to be of similar age and having similar interests, the victim identifies with and confides in the predator

3. If you come across a site which has inappropriate content, you should send them an e-mail saying that you don't approve of their site.

- A. True B. False

Teaching Notes:

- ✓ many perpetrators of this type of activity are seeking a response of any kind
- ✓ sending them an e-mail will reveal your e-mail address which may encourage them to target you directly

4. All Internet users are responsible for the content of the messages they send.
(This includes hate statements, pranks or prejudice)

- A. True B. False

Teaching Notes:

- ✓ crimes on the Internet are subject to the same penalties as crimes in the "real world" if you perpetrate this type of activity, you may be subject to fraud, liable, harassment, various hate crimes, etc.

10. Every website on the Internet is registered and screened for content and accuracy.

- A. True B. False

Teacher Notes:

- ✓ the Internet is notorious for inaccurate content
- ✓ information that looks legitimate may be totally false
- ✓ use a variety of sources to verify your information

11. Software is available to protect private information like your address and telephone number from being transmitted when you visit a website.

- A. True B. False

Teacher Notes:

- ✓ make sure you buy good quality software and keep it up to date

12. All instant messenger conversations and e-mails are private and cannot be viewed by others.

- A. True B. False

Teacher Notes:

- ✓ you should not say anything over the Internet that you would not want to become public knowledge

13. A virus on your computer can allow a hacker to copy, delete or modify information on your computer.

- A. True B. False

Teacher Notes:

- ✓ they may send you what appears to be an innocent message and attach a virus that will allow them to take over your computer

14. Predators may offer bogus jobs over the Internet to lure victims.

- A. True B. False

Teacher Notes:

- ✓ this is a way to lure young people to an unsafe place or to get private information through a job application

