

ATTITUDINAL ASSESSMENT FOR STUDENTS

Please answer the questions in the following manner:

A) Strongly Agree B) Agree C) Disagree D) Strongly Disagree E) Don't Know

1. It is very possible that someone online is not who they say they are.
 Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know
2. It is always safe to meet someone in person who you first met on the Internet as long as you do not go alone
 Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know
3. Young people are never targets for criminals.
 Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know
4. All forms, surveys and/or contests on the Internet are checked and are perfectly safe to fill in.
 Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know
5. You should only open e-mail messages from people that you know.
 Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know
6. Jokes or funny pictures you receive from friends by e-mail never carry viruses.
 Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know
7. Games that are downloaded from the Internet may contain viruses.
 Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know
8. It is okay to tell your friends your passwords.
 Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

9. Other Internet users can gather personal information about you by monitoring your internet activities over several sessions.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

10. The Internet computer should be located in a busy area of the house.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

11. It is important to tell an adult that you trust when you see something on the Internet that is inappropriate or bothers you.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

12. It is important to talk to your parents to establish rules for using the Internet.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

13. It is okay to give your telephone number to someone you meet on the Internet.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

14. Chatting with people on the Internet is like talking to strangers.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

15. You should leave a Chat room immediately if someone says things which make you feel uncomfortable.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

16. Criminals frequently meet youth on the Internet by saying they are of similar age and by pretending to have common interests.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

17. If you visit a site which has inappropriate content, it is not a good idea to contact them.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

18. Filtering and blocking software should be installed on all Internet computers to assist in protecting private information.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

19. You should not say or post anything on the Internet that you do not want to make public knowledge.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

20. It is important to use software to completely wipe all information from your computer and disks before getting rid of them.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

21. Everything you see or read on the Internet is true.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know

22. Criminals may trick youth into meeting with them by offering bogus jobs or prizes.

Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree Don't Know